We both thought it was funny.By CustomerI bought the book for a friend since he likes fishing.We both thought it was funny.0 of 0 people found the following review helpful. Want moreBy Marlowe D. KattPretty good, just too short. Would have like to see more of them. Carpenter has an unique view on these things, sort of like a backwoods Gary Larsen.0 of 0 people found the following review helpful. Five StarsBy Charles Robert BestEnjoy the author

Enjoy this laugh-inducing collection of fishing follies drawn from the famed comic-strip, Tundra, syndicated in nearly 500 newspapers. Proudly made in the U.S.A., the 1000 precision-cut, fully-interlocking pieces are poly-bagged for protection inside an attractive 12 x 10 box. Completed puzzle measures 19 1/4 x 26 5/8 .

About the AuthorChad Carpenter is an American cartoonist, well known for his comic panel Tundra. Carpenter launched the strip in the Anchorage Daily News in 1991, and since then he has self-syndicated it to over 330 newspapers, an unusually high amount for strips in self-syndication.
