Not as good as the first Vice Do's and Dont's book but worth checking out By Martha FI was super excited when I saw this online, I don't know if I was aware of vice having a second fashion do and don't book out and just forgot or what but I was super happy to see that I could finally read another book full of their hilarious commentary Unfortunately, I have to say that I was a little disappointed in this book, at least compared to the first one. In my opinion it just wasn't as funny however I am going to read it again b/c with books like these it's easy to miss a lot the first time around. 1 of 1 people found the following review helpful. Mean spirited Hipster Book By Dudeman5000 I use this to occupy my time while on the toilet. It's a series of picture which captions either damning the individual to fashion hell or lauding them as a person with great style. Sometimes the lines are blurred. Some captions will make you snort with laughter. 0 of 0 people found the following review helpful. dos and donts By chuddypretty much the same as the first one. not quite as good. still funny.

It has been eight years since the last book of DOs DONTs. In that time, Vice magazines flagship column has changed from a couple guys in Brooklyn musing about pants to an international fashion juggernaut. With pictures sent in from thousands of contributors around the world and captions written by opinionated cranks around Vices offices in New York and London, the DOs DONTs now represent the most incisive and honest commentary on street fashion in the last million years of humans wearing clothes. This book collects the most exuberant DOs and lowliest, most stomach-turning DONTs from the last three years of Vice magazine and Vice.com, and presents them unto you in one tidy volume perfect for the cistern of your toilet or wherever else you keep your important reading material.

About the Author Vice Magazine started out as a lowly newsprint punk zine in 1994 in Montreal. Now its this big, weird, famous, smart and stupid magazine thats published in 22 (thats right, fucking 22) countries. We mix real-deal investigative journalism, witty and learned interviews, the best young photographers and artists, and a total global perspective with dick jokes, gratuitous nudity, and questionable opinions on how to live ones life. Then we fart it all out every month in a magazine that is so good, people get visibly angry and jealous when they touch it. Oh well. Thats theirproblem.
