I also got an education in who some of the west women were. There is some subjectivity in who was selected for this book though...2 of 2 people found the following review helpful. A lot of good storiesBy Markku OjanenThis was an enjoyable book. The western women had a lot interesting stories to tell. Most of them had very short careers in westerns and in films generally. Ladies had to be young and beautiful in order to continue. Most of them had spouse and children to raise, which is a good reason to stop making films. It is good to read that they are generally a quite happy women. This is a well-produced book for western film lovers.

This collection features a diverse mixture of leading ladies of Westerns, along with several who are not quite as well known. Some toiled in B westerns, others worked exclusively at the A level, and a few were relegated to television. Those interviewed are Jane Adams, Julie Adams, Merry Anders, Vivian Austin, Joan Barclay, Patricia Blair, Pamela Blake, Adrian Booth, Genee Boutell, Lois Collier, Mara Corday, Gail Davis, Myrna Dell, Ann Doran, Faith Domergue, Dale Evans, Beatrice Gray, Coleen Gray, Anne Gwynne, Lois Hall, Kay Hughes, Marsha Hunt, Eilene Janssen, Anna Lee, Joan Leslie, Nan Leslie, Kay Linaker, Teala Loring, Lucille Lund, Beth Marion, Donna Martell, Kristine Miller, Peggy Moran, Maureen O'Hara, Debra Paget, Jean Porter, Paula Raymond, Jan Shepard, Marion Shilling, Roberta Shore, Elanor Stewart, Peggy Stewart, Linda Stirling, Gale Storm, Helen Talbot, Audrey Totter, Virginia Vale, Elena Verdugo, Jacqueline White and Gloria Winters. Gwynne, Hall, Storm and Vale provide forewords to the work.

"this is one excellent volume...highly recommended"--Classic Images; "excellent selection of some 150 photographs, scenes, lobby cards, most of them extremely rare. [The authors] are to be commended for their work and research...recommended for any western fans library"--Nostalgia Westerns; "entertaining and an absorbing read. ...well-illustrated, handsome"--Wrangler's Roost; "[an] excellent book"--Under Western Skies; "this affectionate trip down the sagebrush trail sheds light on an aspect of the western that doesn't usually merit much discussion"--Film .About the AuthorBoyd Magers, president of Video West, has contributed to scores of magazines and several television documentaries.
