David MacFadyen : Yellow Crocodiles and Blue Oranges: Russian Animated Film since World War II before purchasing it in order to gauge whether or not it would be worth my time, and all praised Yellow Crocodiles and Blue Oranges: Russian Animated Film since World War II:

'Yellow Crocodiles and Blue Oranges' is a comprehensive history that reveals the revolutionary spirit and philosophical underpinnings of Russian animation.

"A significant contribution to our understanding of Soviet animation through the prism of phenomenology. This daring approach also reveals the author's profound knowledge of the difficult fate of alternative Western philosophies in the Soviet Union." Christina Stojanova, assistant professor, Global Studies, Wilfrid Laurier University "This will be a key reference text for university courses in Russian film studies and also animation courses in general." Esther Leslie, The School of English and Humanities, Birkbeck College, University of London
